

Color in Printmaking Workshop

with Robynn Smith and Diane Olivier

At Blue Mouse Studios North, 1890 Bryant St., San Francisco

Are you new to printmaking? Do you have printmaking experience and want to expand your palette? Are you a seasoned printmaker who would like to understand color a bit better or spice up your practice? This workshop is for you. Using Silk Cut Linoleum blocks as a matrix, we will delve into color theory and practice, exploring color mixing, layering, color systems and intuitive responses to color.

With over 30 years of experience teaching color fundamentals, Robynn will help advance your understanding and practical use of color. Diane's enthusiastic, open nature and her fabulous studio guarantees a colorful printmaking adventure full of inspiration and camaraderie. No solvents in the studio, quality materials, limited to eight vaccinated participants only, so we have room to roam!
