The Recology Artstart Student Hub summer residency program

Reclaim, Repurpose, Reimagine (RRR) explores the act of transforming discarded objects into art. Through the use of reclaimed materials that would otherwise have been discarded or lost, artists make visible the process of self-discovery, personal growth, identity, environmentalism, and sustainability.

They are united by a shared ability to recognize hidden beauty, potential, and resilience in both objects and ourselves, and by their desire to illuminate personal stories that resonate with all of us.
