Within the auspices of Human Services Dept., the City of Oakland Aging and Adult Services

presents the annual Older Americans' Month of May Celebration 2018. Wed. May 2, 10-2 PM

The Art Exhibit component extends the theme "Generations Engage" with inclusion of Art created by preschoolers, middle schoolers, high schoolers and seniors adults.

This mirrors an aspect of the Mission of the Human Services Dept... "in expanding programs to better respond to Oakland's diverse communities;"

Public viewing of the exhibits in various locations, will be available May 2 until Fri. May 25.

Presently, confirmed exhibit sites are, The Laurel Bookstore, Joyce Gordon Gallery, The Malonga Casquelourd Center for the Arts, MOCHA, 150 Frank H. Ogawa Plaza Lobby and 250 Frank H. Ogawa Plaza Lobby.

Visual Arts Project Liaison Tomyé Madison is working directly with the Senior Services Supervisor Andrea Turner, curating, coordinating and installing participants Art.

This event also offers volunteer opportunities to gain hands on experience using various skills to have successful presentations.

Ms. Madison will provide the scope and timeline of specifics "jobs" to those interested.

Please connect ASAP if you want to be involved in this crucial component of the event.
