

Takbon Texture Printmaking with Cindy Davis

Sun, November 4th | 10:30 - 4:30

Skill Level Beginner+

Ages 16+

Fee $100 for NUMU members, $120 for general
(all materials included with Tuition)

Explore the ancient process of Takbon, a traditional Korean printmaking technique for transferring the textures of objects onto paper. The result is similar to a rubbing, but instead of using friction and a crayon or charcoal, an inked dauber is tapped on the surface of the paper. This gentle method of tapping reveals minute details and allows for the arrangement of different objects in a single print.
